WAYNE TOLLEMACHE JOINS FIRST ADVANTAGE TO LEAD ASIA PACIFIC OPERATIONS

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Feb. 13, 2007—The Employer Services segment of First Advantage Corporation (NASDAQ: FADV) today announced the appointment of Wayne Tollemache as executive managing director - Asia Pacific. Tollemache assumes responsibility for all operations in Asia and Australia and reports to Bart Valdez, president of the segment.

“First Advantage is expanding our offerings in the Asia Pacific region from background screening — a market we now dominate — to the full continuum of First Advantage’s hiring-related service offerings,” Valdez said in announcing the appointment. “Wayne Tollemache’s experience in developing strategic initiatives for international business growth, sales, operations and business development will be instrumental in the continuing expansion of our business in the region.”

Prior to joining First Advantage, Tollemache spent 10 years with TeleTech, a leading global business process outsourcing provider, most recently as managing director, Singapore & Malaysia. In that capacity he had full profit and loss accountability and was responsible for operations and business growth within the region. Prior to that he was chief operating officer for TeleTech Malaysia and Business Development Director for TeleTech New Zealand. He began his career with Telecom New Zealand Ltd., where he was quality manager and was subsequently promoted to national manager.

Tollemache holds a post-graduate diploma in management studies from the University of Waikato in New Zealand, a certificate in quality assurance and a technician trade certificate. He participates in “Business in the Community,” a volunteer business mentoring program in New Zealand. He resides in Singapore with his wife and son.
