Service UPDATES – Hurricane Charley

First Advantage – St. Petersburg Office

Due to the approach of Hurricane Charley, First Advantage's St. Petersburg office will operate with a reduced staff for Friday, August 13th. As such severe weather conditions in Florida are expected, contingencies are in place to ensure that delays in service are minimized.

Current work is being directed to other service centers and we will resume full operations over the weekend as the storm passes. As our servers are being readied and backed up, access to our Web services will temporarily shut down beginning at 10:00PM EST on Thursday, August 12th.

You may, however, find communications with the office temporarily difficult. We will resume regular service in St. Petersburg as soon as possible and apologize for any inconvenience this may cause.
